of Republicans who have been prominent in the Citizens' party either as officeholders or as lenders. Their decision to nominate candidates followed a vain effort on the part of members of the Citizens' party to force out a Democratic ticket against the ticket nominated on the Independent Municipal ticket. There will be no Citizens' party ticket in the field.

The Democrats of the city have united on Judge W. J. N. Moyers as the candidate of the independent Municipal party for Judge of the City Court. His candidacy is indersed by John J. McLean, chairman of the Republican City Central Committee, and other prominent Republicans. This nomination was made in the hope that politics would cut no figure in the election of a Judge of the East St. Louis City Court.
Since this was settled on, some of the leaders of the Citizens' party, which was defeated in the spring election, set about to defeated in the spring election, set about to get up a Democratic ticket to split the Democratic vote on the Independent Municipal candidate. This proved a failure, and yesterday morning at a meeting of nine of the members of the Republican City Central Committee it was decided to hold a convention. Notices were posted and two hours later the convention was held.

TO ABOLISH CITY OFFICE.

Mayor Fred J. Kern of Belleville yester-day morning instructed City Attorney Gustav Baer to draw up an ordinance repealing the ordinance which created the office of License Inspector of Belleville, and providing that his duties shall devolve on the Chief of Police and his force of policemen. According to Mayor Kern, the office is superfluous, and that when it was created four years ago it was for the benefit of Adam Weilinuenster, who falled to keep records in his office.
